STANLEY G. TROTT, P. M.

Mr. VOLKER. No. 108 Market street, has our thanks for late New York papers, weekly and daily.

DEATH OF AN OLD CHARLESTONIAN.—The Columbia Phoenix brings the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. C. J. ELKIND, an old citizen of Charleston, but of some time a resident of Greenville, South Carolina. Mr. ELKIND was a prominent and energetic citizen of Greenville, and his death will be felt by that community.

ALARM OF FIRE.—On Saturday afternoon, an alarm of fire was given, which was traced to MAMIE'S WHARF, but was found to be caused by the accidental burning of some shavings at a work shop. No damage was done, and though the engine turned out promptly, the bells were not rung and the fire was soon extinguished.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. EDWARD BAKER, an employee of the South Carolina Railroad, had his hand severely lacerated on Saturday, in a turning lathe, at the company's shop. The fingers of the right hand were mangled off, and amputation was found to be necessary. Medical advice was promptly called in, and at last accounts Mr. BAKER was doing well.

DOWNFALL.—Many of our readers will be grieved to learn that the large tree which formerly stood near the corner of King and Vanderhorst Streets, was blown down by the wind of yesterday morning. This tree was quite old and partially decayed, and wanted merely a slight blow to prostrate it. The soldiers and others were busy in cutting up and removing the trunk yesterday, and there will soon be no vestige of the tree remaining.

ATLANTA TURNPIKE.—It will, doubtless, surprise some of our German fellow-citizens to learn that Atlanta has a Turnpike. Such we find, however, to be the case, and on Tuesday last, they celebrated their anniversary, had tumblers, and a distribution of prizes. Mr. M. L. LUCY, secretary, the New Era informs us, delivered a very handsome speech, "a fine effort." "In the past," said the speaker, "the German language." The affair passed off very happily, and seems to have excited a good deal of attention among the dwellers of the Gate City.

AN OFFICER'S REMAINS.—The body of Col. W. D. DEAN, who commanded the 15th Regiment of Georgia Cavalry in the late war, and who was killed in the terrible struggle at Gettysburg, arrived here yesterday in the steamship Falcon, from Baltimore. The deceased served through the Mexican war as Captain in the Palmetto Regiment; was twice wounded at Churubusco, and distinguished at the Del Rio gate; in March, 1855, he was appointed Captain in the 1st Cavalry U. S. A., in which regiment he served, mainly in the West, until the commencement of the late war.

HOMESTEAD BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—This association held their first meeting Saturday evening, at which the following officers were elected:

W. G. WILKINS, President.
C. F. ALMAR, Director.
R. B. CLARK, Director.
S. C. HARRIS, Director.
J. H. HARRIS, Director.

Fifteen hundred shares have been taken, and there is every prospect that the association will be favorably received by the community. For the present the office of the company will be found at the store of Messrs. W. G. WILKINS & Co., corner of King and Beaufain streets.

PALMETTO RACE BALL CLUB.—This club played their usual game on Saturday afternoon, but there was a larger attendance and more spirit shown in the playing than usual.

Knowledge that a rival club had been established may have added to the interest, as the Atlanta Antislavery contest when they are sufficiently drilled. But, from the performance of the Palmettos on Saturday, they will have a severe struggle before them. Six innings were played on Saturday, and the winning side made thirty-two runs, to twenty-one made by their opponents. The club was equally divided, and the playing attracted considerable attention from the number of spectators who were on the ground.

FIRE.—At 8 P. M. yesterday a fire was discovered in an out-building in the rear of Messrs. SHREVE & COHEN'S tin factory and warehouse, in Race street. The bell soon sounded the alarm, but before the engines could reach the spot the flames had communicated with the battery, and the scarcity of water prevented any effort being made to preserve the buildings. Messrs. SHREVE & COHEN had carefully avoided the use of fire, and had kept the out-building reserved for use in case of fire. They therefore, although the engines were promptly on the ground, they were unable to exhibit their powers from want of water, and the fire was only confined to the building where it originated. The factory was the property of Mr. DUC, and was insured for $1000 in the agencies of Mr. HONOUR; but there was no insurance on the stock and fixtures, and the loss in that respect will probably reach four or five thousand dollars.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—At 9 A. M. on Saturday, while Mr. ROBERT JORDAN, Sr., for many years the Superintendent of the West Point Mills, was engaged in his usual duties in the mill, he inadvertently stepped upon a slippery stair, which precipitated him upon the circular saw then in operation. In falling, Mr. JORDAN succeeded in twisting himself round, and the saw struck him on the right side, inflicting a severe wound back and below the right shoulder. All of the ribs, we learn, were severed from the backbone, and the saw cut into the cavity of the chest. Mr. JORDAN succeeded in extricating himself, and, though bleeding profusely, walked to his house, some four hundred yards distant, where his daughter, with admirable presence of mind, tore up a sheet and made a bandage which controlled the hemorrhage until the arrival of the doctor.

Mr. J. C. HONOLAND was fortunately, at the mill, attending a patient, and was immediately called in; together with Dr. A. P. PELZER, who, for some time, considered the case hopeless. The remedies applied, however, seemed to be efficacious for the patient enjoyed a sound sleep on Saturday night, and the symptoms are now considered more favorable and hopes are entertained of his ultimate recovery.

Apparatus which keep the bones in position. Skillful professional attendance, good nursing and a good constitution may enable Mr. JORDAN to weather the storm and make a good recovery.

BAPTISM.—The steamer Planter, Captain FERGUSON, was chartered by the congregation of Calvary Baptist Church (colored) to take the candidates for baptism and others to Daniel's Island, on the Wando River, where the rite of baptism was to be performed. At 10 A. M. a large crowd collected at Venning's Wharf, and by the time the steamer started there were fully three hundred on board. The day was beautiful, the sun being somewhat obscured by the clouds, and the water was quite smooth. At 12 M. the Planter reached the camping ground, and a temporary wharf having been erected by her Captain, it was immediately pressed into service by the passengers; who gladly took up the line of march for the woods. Seats had been arranged under the branches of a wide-spreading oak, and the congregation were addressed by their Pastor, the Rev. Charles Small, and the doctrine of baptism thoroughly explained. Tents had been erected near the shore, and preparations made for the candidates, who were marched from the church to the shore, and arranged in a hollow square on the beach. Their Pastor addressed them on the public profession they were about to make, and stated that they had chosen this secluded spot in order to be apart from the rude and ungaily who might otherwise have come to mock them. After the candidates were duly baptized, the candidates were led to him by his assistants, and were each of them immersed. An old patriarch whose hair was of the same color as his gown, led the van, and some young girls brought up the rear. There were forty-six baptized, fifteen males, and thirty-one females—most of them young in years. The utmost order was preserved, and the arrangements made for the comfort of the immersed were satisfactory. A large crowd gathered on the banks and on the steamer, to witness the spectacle, and while the candidates were going down into the water, they sang "Hail, Hail," and other old church tunes. The ceremony occupied one hour, and the falling tide intimating pretty strongly that the time was up, the party returned to the steamer, which loosed from her moorings and sped swiftly back to the city.

The Calvary Church worship at Bonum's Hall, John Street, and are under the charge of the Rev. Charles Small, formerly the body servant of Bishop GADSDEN.

MAYOR'S COURT. May 25.—Maria Richardson, a woman of color, who had a lot of hogs on her premises, was ordered to get clear of them in forty-eight hours, or the officers would clear them out for her.

A man who had been doing business as a junk shop keeper without license, and had gone largely into the purchase of city grates, and who was also brought up for lying down drunk in the street, was fined $20.

Two men, dealers in "goot goots," having had a dispute about "moonish," passed some complimentary expressions between them, which they concluded with a thrilling exhibition of sticks and bricks, were fined for disturbing the quiet of the street and fined $5 each, the payment of which seemed to excite as many contortions of the countenance as would be caused by the drawing out of the soundest and most useful jaw tooth.

Richard Jenkins, a very small black boy, who stole a silver watch and sold it to a keeper of a junk shop, was locked up for ten days.

A person was fined $20 for not removing fish from his premises, and advised to remedy it promptly.

The following extracts from Special Order No. 54 will prove of interest to our readers, as they embrace subjects that have attracted the attention of the community for some time. The vested question of the street cars is now definitely settled, and we are happy to state that Mr. S. C. STURR will be retained to Headquarters Second Military District.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 26, 1897.
[Special Order No. 54.]

II. The testimony in the case of the several parties arrested and held in custody, charged with participating in riotous and disorderly conduct in the streets and streets, and having been forwarded to the headquarters, with the recommendations of the Provost Marshal of Charleston, and the action of the Post Commander upon the same, it is ordered that the proceedings be, and they are hereby approved. Daniel Eckhardt, Sidney McGuire, John Greene, Wm. Price, and Morris Smith, will be discharged.

In the case of Wm. Huger and John F. Stewart, charged with resisting and obstructing the officers of the police in the performance of their duty; throwing missiles at the cars, and inciting others to riotous conduct, charges will be preferred against them, and sent to a Military Commission for trial.

III. The testimony in the case of S. CALHOUN SMITH, of Charleston, supports the charge that, on the 27th of April, he maliciously cut and mutilated the Garrison Flag which had been loaned to the Charleston Hotel and Ladder Company to decorate their Truck for a parade. Indeed, the only circumstance in favor of the accused is his own acknowledgment of guilt, coupled with an avowal that the act was done in a moment of undue excitement, and an expression of sincere contrition for the offense.

A petition for the pardon of SMITH, addressed to the Commanding General, has been received and considered with the respectful attention due to the representation of the prominent and influential citizens who have signed it. They affirm that the offense for which he is confined receives no countenance in the community, and that the petitioners, in common with all good citizens, condemn it. The said petition having been referred to Brevet Brigadier-General H. B. CLAY, U. S. A., commanding the Post of Charleston, he has returned with the depositions, proof and papers, and a recommendation that the accused be released from confinement and discharged from custody. It appearing that the further punishment of the accused is not necessary as an example; and that the confinement he has already undergone, added to the general condemnation of the community, will sufficiently admonish him of the consequences of misconduct; it is ordered that he be discharged.

By command of Maj. Genl. D. E. SICKLES.
[Signed] J. W. CLOUS,
Capt. 38th Inf'ty, A. D. C. and A. A. Genl.

INQUIRE WITHIN.—The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white fixtures, you will exclaim, at once, "how beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy to such dental furniture, we keep it always sound and perfect—there is nothing like fragrant SODONTO.
